IN THE COMPETITION APPEAL TRIBUNAL

Case No: 1795/7/7/26

BETWEEN:

BIRA TRADING LIMITED

Applicant/Proposed Class Representative

- and -

(1) ALPHABET INC.
(2) GOOGLE LLC
(3) GOOGLE IRELAND LIMITED
(4) GOOGLE UK LIMITED

Respondents/Proposed Defendants

(the "Proceedings")

ORDER

UPON the Applicant bringing an application for a collective proceedings order on behalf of a proposed opt-out class comprising UK-domiciled advertisers (the "Proposed Opt-Out Class Members") and foreign-domiciled advertisers who opt in to the Proceedings (the "Proposed Opt-In Class Members").

AND UPON the Proposed Defendants having each filed an acknowledgement of service indicating an intention to contest jurisdiction; oppose the application for a collective proceedings order; and defend all of the claims.

AND UPON the Proposed Defendants' application by letter dated 23 November 2026, with the consent of the Proposed Class Representative, for an extension to the deadline for an application to dispute the Tribunal's jurisdiction under Rule 34(4) of the Competition Appeal Tribunal Rules 2015 ("Tribunal Rules")

AND HAVING REGARD TO Rule 76(12) of the Tribunal Rules

IT IS ORDERED BY CONSENT THAT:

1. Subject to paragraph 2, the deadline by which any of the Proposed Defendants shall make an application to dispute the Tribunal's jurisdiction under Rule 34(4) of the Tribunal Rules is extended:

   (a) in respect of the Proposed Opt-Out Class Members (or any of them) until 56 days after the date on which any CPO is made by the Tribunal in these Proceedings; and

   (b) in respect of the Proposed Opt-In Class Members (or any of them), until 56 days after the expiry of the deadline for Proposed Opt-In Class Members to opt-in to the Proceedings.

2. If an application for permission to appeal any such CPO or judicial review proceedings in respect of such CPO is commenced, the deadline by which any of the Proposed Defendants shall make an application to dispute the Tribunal's jurisdiction shall be deferred until 30 days after the date on which the CPO is no longer subject to appeal or judicial review.

3. Liberty to apply.

4. Costs in the case.
