ORDER

UPON considering the Appellants' application (the "Application"), made by way of a letter dated 20 December 2012, for the one-month period for applying for permission to appeal prescribed by rule 58(2) of the Competition Appeal Tribunal Rules 2003 to be extended until a date one month after the Tribunal gives judgment on the two issues referred to in paragraph 489 of the Tribunal's Judgment of 20 December 2012 ([2012] CAT 31) (the "Paragraph 489 Issues")

AND HAVING REGARD TO the Respondent's agreement to that period being initially extended for one month only pending further consideration of the matter

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. Application be granted.
2. There be liberty to apply.

REASONS

Having carefully considered the points made by the Appellants in the Application, in particular that, in the event there is an appeal to the Court of Appeal against the Tribunal's Judgment of 20 December 2012 ([2012] CAT 31) and against the Tribunal's eventual judgment on the Paragraph 489 Issues, that appeal should be heard by a single constitution of the Court of Appeal, I consider that it is in the interests of justice and procedural economy to make this order.
