ORDER

UPON reading the correspondence from the legal representatives of the parties indicating that they have reached agreement as to the establishment of a confidentiality ring in relation to Cases No: 1156/8/3/10, 1157/8/3/10, 1158/8/3/10 and 1159/8/3/10 (together, the “Appeals”)

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. This Order becomes effective in respect of each of the persons named in Part A of the Schedule to this Order only upon receipt by the Tribunal of a signed undertaking in the terms of Part B of the Schedule to this Order.
2. For the purposes of this Order:

- 2.1 “Confidential Information” is defined as information justifying confidential treatment by the Tribunal in accordance with rule 53 of the Competition Appeal Tribunal Rules which is contained in any documents served or disclosed in connection with these Appeals.
- 2.2 “Relevant Advisers” are those persons:
 - 2.2.1 listed in Part A(i) of the Schedule to this Order who have given a signed undertaking to the Tribunal in the terms of Part B(i) of the Schedule to this Order;
 - 2.2.2 listed in Part A(ii) of the Schedule to this Order who have given a signed undertaking to the Tribunal in the terms of Part B(ii) of the Schedule to this Order;
 - 2.2.3 any person employed by OFCOM; or authorised by the Tribunal upon further application
3. OFCOM shall serve on the parties un-redacted copies of the Pay TV Statement dated 31 March 2010, including any pricing models on which OFCOM relied in drafting the Pay TV Statement and each of the parties shall serve on the other parties un-redacted versions of their pleadings, witness statements and other documents on the condition that such un-redacted versions and any Confidential Information contained within those pleadings and documents shall be disclosed only to the Relevant Advisers who have signed an undertaking to the Tribunal and to the parties in the terms of Part B of the Schedule to this Order.
4. All such un-redacted versions of pleadings and other documents served in these proceedings must be marked so as to indicate the parts in relation to which confidential treatment is claimed, in the manner referred to in paragraph 13.22 of the Tribunal’s Guide to Proceedings (October 2005).
5. If any party wishes to add any additional person as a Relevant Adviser for the purposes of paragraph 2.2 of this Order, they shall apply to the Tribunal indicating whether each of the other parties consents or does not consent to the addition of that person.
6. There be liberty to apply.

The Honourable Mr Justice Barling
President of the Competition Appeal Tribunal

Made: 29 June 2010
Drawn: 29 June 2010

PART B(i)

In respect of any Confidential Information disclosed to them pursuant to this Order, each Relevant Adviser referred to in paragraph 2.2.1 of the Tribunal's order of 29 June 2010 (the "Tribunal's Order") undertakes that they will comply with the following requirements in the following terms:

I, [name], of [firm, company or establishment] being [legal or other qualification] and regulated so far as my professional conduct is concerned by [regulatory body, if any] undertake to the Tribunal and each of the parties as follows:

1. I have read a copy of the Tribunal's Order and understand the implications of that order and the giving of this undertaking.
2. I will not disclose the Confidential Information (as defined in the Tribunal's Order) to any person who is not a Relevant Adviser (as defined in the Tribunal's Order) without the express consent of the person originally disclosing the information or the permission of the Tribunal.
3. I will use the Confidential Information only for the purpose of these proceedings and for the purpose of no other current or future proceedings, dispute, complaint, or other use whatsoever without the express consent of the person originally disclosing the information or the permission of the Tribunal.
4. The pleadings and documents containing the Confidential Information will remain in my custody or the custody of another Relevant Adviser at all times and be held in a manner appropriate to the circumstances so as to prevent unauthorised access.
5. The production of further copies by me of the documents containing the Confidential Information shall be limited to those required for the use of the Relevant Advisers for the purposes of these proceedings and shall be held in accordance with paragraph 4 of this undertaking.
6. Any and all copies of the pleadings and documents in paper form containing the Confidential Information will be returned to the party originally disclosing the pleadings or documents at the conclusion of the present proceedings; any copies pleadings and documents containing the Confidential Information in electronic form will where possible be returned or, where that is not possible, will be rendered inaccessible from any computer systems, disk or device so that the Confidential Information is not readily available to any person.
7. Save that none of the requirements listed at paragraphs 2 to 5 above shall prevent Relevant Advisers from disclosing to the person advised by them Confidential Information which such person has already legitimately seen.

PART B(ii)

In respect of any Confidential Information disclosed to them pursuant to this Order, each Relevant Adviser referred to in paragraph 2.2.2 of the Tribunal's order of 29 June 2010 (the "Tribunal's Order") undertakes that they will comply with the following requirements in the following terms:

I, [name], of [firm, company or establishment] being [legal or other qualification] and regulated so far as my professional conduct is concerned by [regulatory body, if any] undertake to the Tribunal and each of the parties as follows:

1. I have read a copy of the Tribunal's Order and understand the implications of that order and the giving of this undertaking.
2. I will not disclose the Confidential Information (as defined in the Tribunal's Order) to any person who is not a Relevant Adviser (as defined in the Tribunal's Order) without the express consent of the person originally disclosing the information or the permission of the Tribunal.
3. I will use the Confidential Information only for the purpose of these proceedings and for the purpose of no other current or future proceedings, dispute, complaint, or other use whatsoever without the express consent of the person originally disclosing the information or the permission of the Tribunal.
4. The pleadings and documents containing the Confidential Information will remain in my custody or the custody of another Relevant Adviser at all times and:
 - (i) In relation to hard copies of any documents containing Confidential Information be held in a filing system that is locked and unable to be accessed by anyone other than me or a Relevant Adviser at any time so as to prevent unauthorised access; and
 - (ii) In relation to electronic copies of any documents containing Confidential Information be stored and transmitted in such a way as to be inaccessible by electronic means by anyone within BT other than a Relevant Adviser;
5. The production of further copies shall only be done by me or a Relevant Adviser or under my direct supervision or under the direct supervision of a Relevant Adviser and the production by me of the documents containing the Confidential Information shall be limited to those strictly required for the use of the Relevant Advisers for the purposes of these proceedings and shall be held in accordance with paragraph 4 of this undertaking.
6. Any and all copies of the pleadings and documents in paper form containing the Confidential Information will be returned to the party originally disclosing the pleadings or documents at the conclusion of the present proceedings; any copies pleadings and documents containing the Confidential Information in electronic form will where possible be returned or, where that is not possible, will be rendered inaccessible from any computer systems, disk or device so that the Confidential Information is not readily available to any person.
7. Save that none of the requirements listed at paragraphs 2 to 6 above shall prevent Relevant Advisers from disclosing to the person advised by them Confidential Information which such person has already legitimately seen.
8. My activities in relation to BT Vision and any other television service that is or may be offered by BT whether on its own or in conjunction with any other party ("BT Television"), will for the duration of these proceedings and a period of two years from their final conclusion by a judgment from any final competent court of appeal ("the Relevant Period") be limited to the conduct of these and any directly related proceedings, and to the provision of legal advice on competition and regulatory matters unconnected to the subject matter of these proceedings, but not including any future actual or contemplated investigation by Ofcom, or any other regulatory authority or any actual or contemplated litigation by any party relating to the sale of the audiovisual rights to any sporting event(s) or competition(s).

9. During the Relevant Period, I will have no involvement (whether by the giving of legal advice or otherwise) in the consideration or formulation of commercial strategy or policy in relation to BT Television. In addition, for the Relevant Period and for three years thereafter, I will not advise BT in relation to any bid or negotiation for movie rights or in relation to any actual or potential sale, acquisition or use of sports audiovisual rights by BT Television, including specifically the following in relation to sports rights:
 - a. Any future Invitations to Tender issued by sports rights holders in relation to any sports audiovisual rights; and
 - b. Any bid submitted or considered by BT Television in relation to the sale of any sports audiovisual rights.
