ORDER OF THE CHAIRMAN

UPON hearing representations from counsel for the Office of Communications (“OFCOM”) at a hearing on 27 June 2008 emphasising the urgency of the issues considered in these proceedings

AND UPON reading the request from the OFCOM dated 10 July 2008 to abridge the time limit to request permission to appeal against the Tribunal’s judgment on the preliminary issue in T-Mobile (UK) Limited v Office of Communications and Telefónica O2 UK Limited v Office of Communications [2008] CAT 15 handed down on 10 July 2008 (“the Judgment”)

AND UPON reading the written observations from T-Mobile (UK) Limited, Telefónica O2 UK Limited and OFCOM

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. Pursuant to rule 19(2)(i) of the Competition Appeal Tribunal Rules 2003, S.I. 2003 No. 1372, the time for filing requests for permission to appeal from the Judgment under rule 58(1)(b) be abridged to 14 days from the handing down of the Judgment.
2. There by permission to apply.

Vivien Rose
Chairman of the Competition Appeal Tribunal
