HANDING DOWN OF JUDGMENT

1 THE PRESIDENT: For the reasons given in the judgment that the Tribunal is handing down today,
2 the Tribunal is deciding that this appeal should not be summarily rejected at this stage and that the 3 procedure should now take its course, subject to Mr. Brannigan's compliance with Rule 8 of the 4 Tribunal's Rules.

5 As far as the costs to date are concerned, the costs will be reserved and, for good order's sake and for
6 administrative reasons connected with the organisation of the Tribunal and a possible change
7 in the composition of the Tribunal hearing this case, the time for appealing in the event of an appeal
8 is abridged to 14 days.

9 I think that that probably completes the proceedings as far as this afternoon is concerned. Thank you
10 very much.
