PROCEEDINGS
AFTER JUDGMENT HANDED DOWN

1 THE CHAIRMAN: The parties were notified of the Tribunal's decision on Rapture's application
2 for permission to amend its notice of appeal and to adduce further evidence on 13th
3 November 2007, with reasons to follow.

4
5 The Tribunal's reasons for its decision are set out in full in the Judgment that I am now
6 handing down, and a copy will be available on the website in due course.

7
8 I note from correspondence that there may be issues between the parties concerning
9 confidentiality. There is no one present today to ask if they wish to make any application in 10 relation to those matters. If an application has to be made then it is convenient for this
11 Tribunal to sit on 4th December; I say that today so that a note can be taken of it or it will be 12 picked up at the end of this transcript, which again in due course will be put on our website.

13
14 The hearing of this case is set down for 18th December. I am now also handing down the 15 Order for Directions for skeleton arguments and hearing bundles for that hearing.

16
17 Thank you very much.
