ORDER

UPON the Order of the Chairman made on 29 July 2021 (the “Order”)

AND UPON the application seeking to vary the terms of the Order by letter from the solicitors of Football DataCo dated 12 November 2021 appending a draft order

AND UPON Sportradar and Genius having confirmed by their solicitors their consent to the terms of the draft order;

IT IS ORDERED BY CONSENT THAT:

1. The parties’ obligations in respect of their cost budgets set out in paragraphs 28 to 31 the Order shall be temporarily suspended.
2. Any party may apply to the Tribunal to lift the temporary suspension within 28 days of the parties giving their Extended Disclosure in accordance with paragraph 18(8) of the Order. Any such notification shall be accompanied by the notifying party’s proposal for a timetable by which the parties should:

- (a) exchange and file revised cost budgets; and
  - (b) provide brief written submissions to the Tribunal identifying any areas of disagreement in respect of those revised budgets.
3. In the event that no party makes an application to lift the temporary suspension in accordance with paragraph 2 above, then the cost budgeting process shall be automatically dispensed with, and the parties shall have no further obligations under paragraphs 28 to 31 of the Order.
4. Costs in the case.
