Discussion re settlement

4 THE PRESIDENT: Mr Howe, good morning.

5 MR HOWE: Good morning, my Lord.

6

My Lord, the parties have been working very hard

7

overnight on heads of terms and I am pleased to be able to say that they have done so and made progress and have 9

8

now just signed heads of terms and are turning their attention to long-form agreements. So, my Lord, we do not need to proceed with the evidence today in those 12

10

11

circumstances and I offer my apologies to the Tribunal

13

for not being able to give you this news earlier. If we 14

could have done, we would have done --

15

THE PRESIDENT: I am sure.

16

MR HOWE: -- and saved you the inconvenience of coming in 17

today.

18

THE PRESIDENT: No, not at all.

19

So the plan is as outlined yesterday: we will 20

adjourn until Monday morning and either carry on with 21

the trial or endorse whatever settlement has been 22

agreed, if it has been.

23

MR HOWE: Yes, my Lord, that is right.

24

THE PRESIDENT: Very good.

25

MR HOWE: If we do not settle, then the train sets off.

THE PRESIDENT: Sets off. Very good.

Well, in that case, we will adjourn and I am very grateful to you all for the update. We will adjourn until 10.30 on Monday.

MR HOWE: Thank you, my Lord.
