- 3.1 Inner Confidentiality Ring Information provided in the context of the Proceedings is to be provided or made available solely to the Inner Confidentiality Ring Members, to be held by them on the terms set out in Annex C of these Revised Confidentiality Terms, subject to the following paragraphs of these Revised Confidentiality Terms.
- 3.2 Confidential Information shall exclude information which is already published or generally available to the public or becomes published or generally available to the public, other than through the act or omission of a receiving Party or an Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Member.
- 3.3 Outer Confidentiality Ring Information provided in the context of the Proceedings is to be provided or made available solely to the Outer Confidentiality Ring Members, to be held by them on the terms as set out in:
- 3.3.1 if the individual is also an Inner Confidentiality Ring Member, Annex C, subject to the following paragraphs of these Revised Confidentiality Terms; or
 - 3.3.2 if the individual is not also an Inner Confidentiality Ring Member, Annex D, subject to the following paragraphs of these Revised Confidentiality Terms.

4. DISCLOSURE OF AND INSPECTION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 4.1 Disclosure and inspection of any document containing Confidential Information shall be restricted to Inner and Outer Confidentiality Ring Members on the basis that:
- 4.1.1 the recipient Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Member holds the Confidential Information on the terms set out in Annex C or D (as relevant);
 - 4.1.2 any such Confidential Information will be treated by the Inner Confidentiality Ring Member as Inner Confidentiality Ring Information and by the Outer Confidentiality Ring Member as Outer Confidentiality Ring Information and will be used solely for the purpose of the proper conduct of the Proceedings; and

- 4.1.3 no such Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Member will, save as expressly provided for by the Revised Confidentiality Terms, discuss, disclose, copy, reproduce or distribute any Confidential Information.
- 4.2 Provided it is for the purpose of the proper conduct of the Proceedings, nothing in these Revised Confidentiality Terms shall prohibit any Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Member from:
- 4.2.1 making notes or copies of, or preparing reports, submissions or other documents concerning, containing or reflecting any Confidential Information (which notes, copies, reports, submissions or other documents would themselves be Confidential Information); and
- 4.2.2 disclosing any Confidential Information to any other person who is an Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Member provided that no Confidential Information shall be directly or indirectly disclosed beyond Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Members.
- 4.3 During any hearing, each Party wishing to refer to Confidential Information shall be responsible for indicating to the Tribunal that the document contains Confidential Information.
- 4.4 In the event of any disclosure of Confidential Information other than as authorised by these Revised Confidentiality Terms (including any unintentional or inadvertent disclosure):
- 4.4.1 solicitors representing the improperly disclosing Party shall immediately notify the improper recipient(s), the solicitors for all Parties and the representatives of any Third Party (where relevant) to whom the Confidential Information belongs;
- 4.4.2 the improperly disclosing Party shall use all reasonable endeavours to further prevent unauthorised disclosure including retrieving all copies of the Confidential Information from the improper recipient(s); and
- 4.4.3 the improperly disclosing Party shall use all reasonable endeavours to secure the agreement (in writing) of the improper recipient(s) not to further disseminate the Confidential Information in any form.

- 4.5 Nothing in these Revised Confidentiality Terms shall prevent or prohibit a receiving Party from disclosing Confidential Information to a person who is not an Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Member and/or referring to such documents or information in open Tribunal insofar as any such disclosure has been authorised in writing by the Disclosing Party.
- 4.6 If at any time any Confidential Information is made the subject of a court disclosure or discovery order (or similar) anywhere in the world, the person upon whom the order is served shall, within a reasonable period and in any event no later than 5 working days from the date of receipt of such an order, give written notice to the Party or Third Party (or the solicitors of the Party or Third Party) to whom the Confidential Information belongs. If the Party or Third Party to whom the Confidential Information belongs does not take steps to prevent the further disclosure of such Confidential Information within 10 working days of the date on which such written notice was given, the Party against whom the order was made may produce such Confidential Information but shall take all reasonable measures to have the Confidential Information treated in accordance with the Revised Confidentiality Terms. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph only applies to a Party who is the recipient of Confidential Information provided in the Proceedings and does not apply to the Disclosing Party.
- 4.7 For the avoidance of doubt, if a Disclosing Party intends to disclose any document originating from a Third Party (save where the said document or the information contained therein has already been disclosed in the Proceedings or is otherwise in the public domain), before any disclosure is made of that document, the Disclosing Party shall provide the relevant Third Party with reasonable notice of the intended disclosure. The Disclosing Party shall allow 10 working days for the Third Party to respond to any such notice. If the Third Party does not take steps to designate such information as Inner Confidentiality Ring Information within 10 working days of the date on which such written notice was given, the Disclosing Party may produce the document in the Proceedings but shall designate such document as Outer Confidentiality Ring Information.

5. ADDITION OR REMOVAL OF PERSONS FROM THE INNER OR OUTER CONFIDENTIALITY RING

5.1 A Party (the Proposing Party) seeking to designate an additional person as an Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Member must:

5.1.1 seek permission in writing from the other Party (the Receiving Party) for the additional person to be designated as an Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Member;

5.1.2 when requesting such written permission generally, provide details of that person's name, role, and an explanation of why their designation as an Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Member is reasonable and necessary;

5.1.3 when requesting such written permission for external economists, also provide that person's company details and curriculum vitae;

5.2 The Receiving Party shall confirm within five (5) clear working days of receipt of the written request referred to in paragraph 5.1 whether they consent to the additional person being designated as an Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Member. Such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

5.3 If the Receiving Party does not consent under paragraph 5.2 to the person being designated an Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Member, then the Receiving Party must provide written reasons for why permission is refused within five (5) clear working days of receipt of the written request referred to in paragraph 5.1.

5.4 If express consent under paragraph 5.2 is given by the Receiving Party, or the Receiving Party raises no objection in accordance with paragraph 5.3 above within five (5) clear working days of receipt of the written request, the additional person shall be required to sign the undertakings at Annex C or D (as applicable) and provide a copy of the signed undertakings to the Receiving Party and the Tribunal. They will then be designated as an Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Member (as applicable).

5.5 If an objection referred to in paragraph 5.3 above is received, the Proposing Party may apply to the Tribunal, provided written notice of such application is given to the other Party. The additional person will become an Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Member (as applicable) if the Tribunal so orders. Such additional person shall sign the undertakings at Annex C or D (as applicable) and provide a copy of the signed undertakings to the Receiving Party and the Tribunal.

- 5.6 If a Party wishes to remove a person as an Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Member, that Party shall notify the other Party. The Party must also comply with paragraph 8 (subject to paragraphs 8.2 and 8.3) by requiring the person to be removed from the Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring to immediately destroy (insofar as technologically feasible) all Confidential Information in their possession. For the avoidance of doubt, a Party may only remove an Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Member from their own Party.
- 5.7 Annex A and B reflect the current list of individuals who are Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Members (as relevant), who have provided the information set out in paragraphs 5.1.2 or 5.1.3 (as applicable) and who have signed the undertakings at Annex C or D (as applicable) and provided a copy to all Party(ies) and the Tribunal in accordance with this paragraph.
- 5.8 The Party(ies) shall keep Annex A and B updated, and shall provide an updated Annex A and B to the Tribunal when additional persons being designated as an Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Member (as appropriate) provide the Tribunal with a copy of signed undertakings in accordance with paragraphs 5.4 or 5.5 and/or when a person is removed as a Permitted Person in accordance with paragraph 5.6. For the avoidance of doubt, there is no requirement to amend this Order when updating the Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Members listed in Annex A or B (as applicable).

6. DESIGNATION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 6.1 Any document containing Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Information shall be designated as such by the Party that introduces the document into the Proceedings. The following procedures shall apply:
- 6.1.1 the Disclosing Party must notify the receiving Party in writing (in compliance with paragraph 7.46 of the Guide) that it is disclosing a document containing Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Information, supported by reasons;
- 6.1.2 a designation of ‘not confidential’ means that the document does not contain Confidential Information. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event of a designation of not confidential, Rule 102 continues to apply (to the extent it would otherwise have applied);

- 6.1.3 failure to provide a designation for a document at the time the document is disclosed means the document shall be deemed not to contain Confidential Information;
 - 6.1.4 a Party may alter the designation of a document/information in accordance with paragraph 7.1 of these Revised Confidentiality Terms; and
 - 6.1.5 the designation of any document as containing Confidential Information by a Party may be challenged in accordance with paragraph 7 of these Revised Confidentiality Terms.
- 6.2 Each Party shall be responsible for labelling and highlighting any Confidential Information in documents disclosed by them in the following ways:
- 6.2.1 Any bundle index will state which documents contain Confidential Information and identify the Party to which the Confidential Information relates.
 - 6.2.2 The specific text that is Confidential Information in a document will be denoted by square brackets and highlighted in colour and the top of each page that contains Confidential Information will be clearly labelled with 'CONTAINS AND/OR REFERS TO CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION', unless the entire document is designated as Confidential Information, in which case, the Disclosing Party will make clear on its face or by using coloured paper/tabs that the entire document is to be treated as Confidential Information.

7. CHALLENGE TO CONFIDENTIAL DESIGNATION

- 7.1 A Party may request that the designation of a document be amended from (i) Inner Confidentiality Ring Information to Outer Confidentiality Ring Information, or (ii) from Outer Confidentiality Ring Information to 'not confidential' as follows:
- 7.1.1 The requesting Party must provide a written request to the other Party and any relevant Third Party specifying the following:
 - (a) the relevant document concerned;
 - (b) the designation the requesting Party considers to be appropriate; and

(c) why it is reasonable and necessary for the designation of the document to be altered.

7.1.2 After receipt of a request under paragraph 7.1 above, the other Party and any relevant Third Party may consent in writing to amend the designation of the document, with such consent not to be unreasonably withheld and, in any event, a response should be provided within 14 clear working days of having initially received the written request referred to a paragraph 7.1.1 above.

7.1.3 In the event that the other Party or relevant Third Party does not respond to the written request referred to at paragraph 7.1.1 above within 14 clear working days of the request being sent, the other Party or relevant Third Party shall be deemed to consent to the amendment to the designation of the relevant document sought by the requesting Party.

7.1.4 Should the consent referred to in paragraph 7.1.2 above not be obtained, the requesting Party may apply to the Tribunal for an order that the relevant document (or parts of it) should be designated as Outer Confidentiality Ring Information or 'not confidential', provided that 5 clear working days' notice is given of that application to the other Party or relevant Third Party. Save for where there are exceptional reasons that justify a hearing, applications under this paragraph 7.1.4 are to be dealt with on paper. For the avoidance of doubt, the initial confidentiality designation of the document(s) in question shall remain at their initial designation until the Tribunal makes its determination.

7.2 The deadlines in this paragraph 7 may be extended by agreement between the Parties. Consent to a request for an extension shall not be unreasonably withheld.

8. COPIES OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

8.1 The production of further copies of the Confidential Information shall be strictly limited to those required by the Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Members to whom they are disclosed.

8.2 Subject to the exceptions in paragraph 8.3 below, each Party and Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Member must destroy copies of all documents containing Confidential Information provided pursuant to these Revised Confidentiality Terms (in both hard and soft copy) (insofar as technologically feasible) at the conclusion of Proceedings (including the determination of any appeals), or when that Party or Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Member ceases to be involved in the Proceedings (including the determination of any appeals). At such time, that Party shall notify its Inner and Outer Confidentiality Ring Members that they must destroy (insofar as technologically feasible) all Confidential Information in their possession. Each Party shall notify the other Party within two months that the Confidential Information has been destroyed (insofar as technologically feasible) or, if longer than two months is required, the date by which such Confidential Information will be destroyed and confirmation of the same provided to the other Party.

8.3 The obligation in paragraph 8.2 above is subject to the following exceptions:

8.3.1 paragraph 8.2 does not apply to solicitors' or counsel's notes subject to continued compliance with all other Revised Confidentiality Terms;

8.3.2 paragraph 8.2 does not create an obligation to search for transitory or deeply stored soft copies of Confidential Information which may exist but which cannot be recovered without special measures, provided that such documents and/or information will be promptly deleted in the event of the restoration of such copies;

8.3.3 paragraph 8.2 does not apply to a Party's copies of pleadings, evidence, skeleton arguments, transcripts, applications, draft orders, correspondence referred to at trial or in a hearing or submitted in the Proceedings as well as lawyer work product referring to Confidential Information, subject to continued compliance with the terms of this Order in respect of the Confidential Information contained within such documents; and

8.3.4 paragraph 8.2 does not apply to Party in respect of the Confidential Information it provided.

9. NOTICES

9.1 Any notice, consent or objection to be given under or in connection with these Revised Confidentiality Terms (each Notice for the purposes of this paragraph) shall be in writing.

9.2 Where a Disclosing Party which is a Third Party discloses material in the Proceedings, that Disclosing Party shall provide to the other Parties details of the representatives who may receive any Notice sent to the Disclosing Party for the purposes of this paragraph 9 only.

9.3 Service of a Notice must be effected by email.

The defined terms in this Order are used in this Annex.

I, [insert name], of [firm, company, or establishment] being [legal or other qualification] and regulated so far as my professional conduct is concerned [by regulatory body, if any] undertake to the Tribunal as follows:

1. I have read a copy of this Order and understand the implications of this Order, the provisions of the Revised Confidentiality Terms, and the giving of these undertakings.
2. My obligations in these undertakings shall apply equally to any documents or information which incorporate Confidential Information (or part thereof) or any information contained therein, as defined in paragraph 2.1.1 of the Revised Confidentiality Terms.
3. Except as expressly contemplated by the Revised Confidentiality Terms, I will not use, disclose, discuss, copy, reproduce or distribute any (i) Inner Confidentiality Ring Information to persons who are not Inner Confidentiality Ring Members, or (ii) Outer Confidentiality Ring Information to persons who are not Outer Confidentiality Ring Members, or authorise, enable or assist any person to do so.
4. Upon ceasing to be an Inner Confidentiality Ring Member, I will promptly destroy (insofar as technologically feasible) all Confidential Information in my possession, in accordance with paragraphs 5.6 and 8.2-8.3 of the Revised Confidentiality Terms.
5. I have read Rule 31.22 of the Civil Procedure Rules and Rules 101 and 102 of the Competition Appeal Tribunal Rules 2015 and am aware of and will comply with the obligations imposed by those Rules.

7. I will otherwise comply with the Revised Confidentiality Terms and/or, as the case may be, take all steps within my power to ensure that the Revised Confidentiality Terms are complied with, including by not disclosing Confidential Information to persons other than relevant Inner or Outer Confidentiality Ring Members, or assisting or enabling any person to do so.
8. The documents containing any Confidential Information will remain in my custody or the custody of another Inner Confidentiality Ring Member at all times and will be held in a manner appropriate to the circumstances so as to prevent unauthorised access.
9. The production of further copies by me of the documents containing Confidential Information shall be limited to that reasonably required for the use of the Inner Confidentiality Ring Members for the purposes of these proceedings only and shall be held in accordance with these undertakings.
10. I will continue to comply with these undertakings after the conclusion of the proceedings (including the determination of any appeals), in respect of any Confidential Information that I do not destroy and continue to hold.
