6.4. A designation of not confidential means that the document/information is not Confidential Information.

6.5. Failure to provide a designation for a document/information at the time the document/information is provided shall be deemed to be a designation that the document/information in question is not confidential.

6.6. A Party receiving documents/information in these proceedings may request that the disclosing Party amend the designation of a document/information that it has provided (including amendment to a designation of not confidential):

- (a) that requesting Party must provide a written request to the disclosing Party (copied to the other Parties) specifying the following:
 - (i) the relevant Confidential Information;
 - (ii) the designation the requesting Party believes is appropriate; and
 - (iii) why it is reasonable and necessary for the designation of the Confidential Information to be amended;

- 7.1. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Order prevents a Party, its advisors or experts from sharing Confidential Information provided by that Party in these proceedings.

- (b) following receipt of a notice pursuant to paragraph 7.3(a) above, a recipient of any such notice shall not unreasonably withhold or delay their consent and if any such recipient objects to Confidential Information being provided or made available to the proposed person, they shall notify the requesting Party in writing within 14 days that they so object;
- (c) if express consent is given by the recipient(s) of any notice under paragraph 7.3(a) or the recipient(s) (or any of them) fail to give express consent and fail to give written notice of objection within the 14 day period specified in paragraph 7.3(b) above:
 - (i) the additional person will be required to give the written undertaking to the Tribunal in the terms of Part C or D (as appropriate) of the Schedule to this Order, as amended to list the specific documents that are to be provided or made available to them; and
 - (ii) the Party concerned will provide the written undertaking referred to in paragraph 7.3(c)(i) above to the Tribunal and other Parties;

7.4. If any objection referred to in paragraph 7.3 above is received, the requesting Party may apply to the Tribunal and give notice of such application to the other Parties.

8. DESIGNATION OF COMMISSION FILE DOCUMENTS

- 8.1. Each Commission File Document disclosed in these proceedings shall be deemed to be designated as either Outer Confidentiality Ring Information, Inner Confidentiality Ring Information, or not confidential, in accordance with the confidentiality designation of that document in the Dawsongroup/Ryder Proceedings as at the date that this Order is drawn.
- 8.2. The Claimants may request that the designation of a Commission File Document be amended from Inner Confidentiality Ring Information to Outer Confidentiality Ring Information, or from Outer Confidentiality Ring Information to not confidential as follows:
- (a) the Claimants must provide a written request to the Defendants and Scania specifying the following:
 - (i) the relevant Commission File Document;
 - (ii) why it is reasonable and necessary for the designation of the Commission File Document to be amended;
 - (b) after receipt of a request under paragraph 8.2(a) above, the Defendants and/or Scania may consent in writing to amend the designation of the Commission File Document, with such consent not to be unreasonably withheld and, in any event, a response should be provided within 28 days of having initially received the written request referred to at paragraph 8.2(a) above;
 - (c) in the event that any of the Defendants do not respond to the written request referred to at paragraph 8.2(a) above within 28 days of the request being sent, the relevant Defendant or Scania shall be deemed to consent to the amendment to the designation of the relevant Commission File Document sought by the Claimants; and
 - (d) should the consent referred to in paragraph 8.2(b) above not be obtained, the Claimants may apply to the Tribunal for an order that the relevant Commission

File Document should be designated as Outer Confidentiality Ring Information or not confidential, provided that notice is given of that application to the other Parties and Scania.

- 8.3. The Defendants shall indicate in writing that they are disclosing Commission File Documents. Failure to comply with this paragraph does not alter the deemed designation of Commission File Documents in accordance with this paragraph 8.

- 9.1. The Settlement Decision shall be deemed to be designated Outer Confidentiality Ring Information.

10. COPIES OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 10.1. Subject to the exception in paragraph 10.2 below, at the conclusion of these proceedings or when an individual ceases to be involved in these proceedings, copies of Confidential Information provided pursuant to this Order (in both hard and soft copy) shall continue to be treated in accordance with this Order unless a Party confirms in writing to the other Parties that the relevant copies of the Confidential Information have been destroyed or made inaccessible. For the avoidance of doubt, any Party that has not confirmed the destruction or inaccessibility of all or any copies of Confidential Information shall continue to treat such copies of Confidential Information in accordance with the terms of this Order.

- 10.2. Paragraph 10 does not apply to a Party in respect of the Confidential Information it provided.

If at any time any Confidential Information is made the subject of a court disclosure or discovery order (or similar) anywhere in the world, the person upon whom the order is served shall immediately give written notice to the legal representatives of the Party or Parties which produced the Confidential Information. If the Party which provided the Confidential Information in these proceedings does not take steps to prevent the further disclosure of such Confidential Information within ten days of the date on which such written notice was given, the Party against whom the order was made may produce such Confidential Information but shall take all reasonable measures to have the Confidential Information treated in accordance with the terms of this Order. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph only applies to a Party who is the recipient of Confidential Information provided in these proceedings and does not apply to the Party which provides the Confidential Information in these proceedings.
