CONSENT ORDER

UPON the Claimants' request for certain "off-the-shelf" data, documents and information

AND UPON the agreement of the Volvo/Renault Defendants to provide "off-the-shelf" disclosure as set out in the letter from Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP to the claimants in the Second Wave Trucks Proceedings dated 29 November 2023

AND UPON the Claimants and the Fourth to Seventh Defendants ("Volvo/Renault") having agreed to the terms of this Order

AND UPON the confidentiality ring order of the President made on 7 December 2023 in these proceedings (the "Confidentiality Ring Order")

BY CONSENT IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. By 4.00pm on the date falling seven business days after the date of this Order, Volvo/Renault shall provide to the Claimants the documents and data identified by the Volvo/Renault Defendants on a best endeavours basis as non-claimant specific materials provided in the VSW Proceedings ("Trial 3") relating to UK market-wide overcharge (the "OTS Disclosure").
2. By 4.00pm on the date falling seven business days after the date of this Order, Volvo/Renault shall provide to the Claimants any guidance notes and disclosure statements relating to the OTS Disclosure outlined at paragraph 1 above (the "Guidance Notes").
3. By 4.00pm on the date falling seven business days after the date of this Order, Volvo/Renault shall provide to the Claimants clarificatory correspondence relating to this disclosure that was exchanged in Trial 3 between Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP and Hausfeld LLP (the "Clarifications"), identified by Volvo/Renault on a best endeavours basis.
4. The OTS Disclosure, Guidance Notes and Clarifications shall be designated as Inner Confidentiality Ring Information pursuant to the Confidentiality Ring Order.
