- 4.1 If a Party (the “Proposing Party”) wishes to add an additional person to the Interim Confidentiality Ring:

4.1.1 The Proposing Party shall notify and request the express written consent of the other Party (the “Notified Party”), specifying the name and role of the proposed additional person and providing an explanation of why the addition is reasonable and necessary.

5. DESIGNATION OF DOCUMENTS OR INFORMATION

- 5.1 A Party providing a Document in connection with the Proceedings may designate that the information contained within it, or an entire Document as Confidential Information. If a Document is not so designated such information will still be subject to the protections of Rule 102.
- 5.2 A Party will review specific text within a Document for confidentiality if the Document is:
- 5.2.1 filed with the Tribunal by a Party;

- 5.2.2 included in any hearing bundle in the Proceedings following agreement between the Parties; or
- 5.2.3 to be referred to at a hearing in the Proceedings following notification from the Receiving Party to the disclosing Party in writing and in good faith that it may refer to the Document at such a hearing.
- 5.3 Following a manual review by a Party pursuant to paragraph 5.2 above, if the Document contains Confidential Information but is not confidential in its entirety, then the reviewing Party shall provide highlighted confidential copies of any such Document(s) to the other Party as soon as practically available and no later than 20 working days (subject to any requested extension, which is not to be unreasonably withheld) after:
- (a) filing or receipt of a Document referred to in paragraph 5.2.1 or 5.2.2 above; or
  - (b) receipt of notice that the Document(s) will be relied upon in a manner set out in paragraphs 5.2.3 above or (if later) receipt of the Document(s) in question.
- 5.4 Each Document that is designated as containing Confidential Information must be clearly labelled as such at the time of disclosure, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter if additional time is required for that purpose.
- 5.5 The Proposed Defendant may disclose into the Interim Confidentiality Ring the following categories of information and documents:
- 5.5.1 the information and documents referred to in Appendices 1 and 2 of the PCR's letter of 24 January 2024 (to the extent available and not already disclosed as non-confidential and subject to any necessary clarification by the PCR of its requests); and

5.5.2 any confidential information and documents on which the Proposed Defendant wishes to rely for the purpose of its Response to the CPO Application and/or at the CPO Hearing; to the extent that such documents (or versions of such documents that are similar but not identical to such documents) have been disclosed in the In re Valve Corporation Antitrust Litigation (case no. 2.21-cv-00563-JMH) in the US and designated as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential”.

5.6 In the circumstances set out at paragraphs 5.2.1-5.2.3 above, to the extent not already provided, the Party asserting Documents or information are designated as Confidential Information shall provide a highlighted confidential copy of each such Document containing its Confidential Information:

5.6.1 at least three (3) working days before the deadline to file electronic and hard copy bundles for a hearing; or

5.6.2 to the extent Documents are produced after such deadline, in sufficient time in advance of the commencement of a hearing, such that any non-confidential information within a Document may be referred to in open court.

5.7 Failure to provide a designation for a Document or information at the time it is disclosed shall be deemed to be a designation that the Document in question or information is not confidential. A disclosing Party may correct any erroneous designation by giving written notice to the Receiving Party, subject to the challenge procedure set out below at paragraph 5.8.

5.8 A Receiving Party may request that the disclosing Party amend the designation of a Document or information that it has provided (including any designation of not confidential) as follows:

5.8.1 The requesting Party (the "Challenging Party") shall provide a written request to the disclosing Party specifying:

(a) the relevant Document or information concerned;

- (b) the designation the Challenging Party considers to be appropriate; and
- (c) why it is reasonable and necessary for the designation of the Document or information to be amended.

5.8.2 A disclosing Party may consent in writing to amend the designation of any Document or information.

5.8.3 Should the consent referred to in paragraph 5.8.2 above not be provided by the disclosing Party within ten (10) working days, the Challenging Party may apply to the Tribunal for an order pursuant to Rule 101(2) that the Document or information should be designated as either Confidential Information or not confidential, provided that ten (10) working days prior written notice is given of that application to the other Party. In responding to such application, a disclosing Party shall comply with Rule 101(1) and paragraphs 7.46 and 7.47 of the Guide. Save where there are reasons to justify a hearing, applications under this paragraph are generally to be dealt with on paper by the Tribunal.

5.8.4 Where an application is made by a Party in accordance with paragraph 5.8.3 above, the Document or information which is subject to the application shall be designated as Confidential Information until the challenge is determined by the Tribunal.

5.8.5 A disclosing Party shall if directed by the Registrar provide a non-confidential version of the relevant Document(s) in accordance with Rule 101(1) and paragraphs 7.48 to 7.50 of the Guide.

5.8.6 Should the confidentiality of any Document added to the bundle during any hearing be in issue, a challenge will be dealt with in accordance with any directions the Tribunal may give.

5.8.7 The deadlines in this paragraph 5.8 above may be extended by agreement between the Challenging Party and disclosing Party. Consent to a request for an extension shall not be unreasonably withheld.

5.9 Each Party shall be responsible, in respect of any Document containing Confidential Information to be introduced at any hearing in the Proceedings, for labelling Confidential Information in the following ways:

5.9.1 Any bundle index will state which Documents are or contain Confidential Information and identify the Party to which the Confidential Information relates.

5.9.2 The Parties will prepare separate confidential and non-confidential hearing bundles where appropriate.

5.9.3 Any text and/or extract which contains Confidential Information will be highlighted with appropriate colour coding.

5.9.4 Where possible and appropriate in view of the Document's format, each page of the Document must include the relevant header 'CONTAINS CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION'.

5.10 Each Party wishing to refer to Confidential Information shall indicate to the Tribunal that the Document is or contains Confidential Information prior to disclosing the content of the Confidential Information. Following such an indication to the Tribunal, and subject to any decision of the Tribunal, Rule 99 shall apply.

6. PROVISION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION TO PERSONS OUTSIDE THE CONFIDENTIALITY RING

6.1 Nothing in this Order prevents a Party from sharing (or from consenting to the sharing of) Confidential Information provided by that Party in the Proceedings.

6.2 A Receiving Party that receives Confidential Information in the Proceedings may request that certain Confidential Information is to be provided or made available to one or more persons who are not Interim Confidentiality Ring Members.

6.3 If a Receiving Party wishes such Confidential Information to be provided or made available to such persons:

6.3.1 it shall notify and request the express written consent of the other Party, specifying the name and role of the proposed person(s), the specific Confidential Information that is to be provided or made available to such person(s) (by reference to the relevant Document(s) insofar as practicable) and provide an explanation of why it is reasonable and necessary for the Confidential Information to be provided or made available to such person(s);

6.3.2 following receipt of a notice pursuant to paragraph 6.3.1 above, if the recipient of such notice objects to the Confidential Information being provided or made available to the proposed person(s), they shall notify the requesting Party in writing within ten (10) working days of receipt of the notice that they so object, save that the requesting Party shall not unreasonably withhold consent to an extension of time for this purpose where it is reasonably required in view of the nature and/or number of Documents which are the subject of the request; and

6.3.3 if the recipient required to be provided with notice under paragraph 6.3.1 above gives express consent:

- (a) the additional person will be required to give the written undertaking in the terms of part B of the schedule to this Order, amended to list the specific Documents that are to be provided or made available to them;
- (b) the Party requesting that the Confidential Information be made available to the person who is not an Interim Confidentiality Ring Member will provide the written undertaking referred to in paragraph 6.3.3(a) above to the other Party; and
- (c) on the completion of those steps, the additional person may be provided with the Documents and/or information.

6.4 If (i) any objection referred to in paragraph 6.3.2 above is received or (ii) no objection is received within the 10-working-day period specified (or within any extended time period the Parties have agreed), the requesting Party may apply to the Tribunal for an order that the Confidential Information may be disclosed to the additional person(s), provided that prior written notice (of ten (10) working days) is given of such application to the other Party. The additional person may be provided with the Documents if the Tribunal so orders.

7. COPIES OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

- 7.1 Subject to the exceptions in paragraph 7.2 below, a Receiving Party must destroy copies of Confidential Information provided to it pursuant to this Order (in both hard and soft copy) or make them inaccessible at the conclusion of the Proceedings (including any appeal), or when that Party ceases to be involved in the Proceedings, and at such time that Party shall notify its Interim Confidentiality Ring Member(s) that they must destroy (insofar as technically feasible) or make inaccessible all Confidential Information in their possession. In such circumstances, each Party concerned shall notify the other Party within a reasonable time that the Confidential Information has been destroyed (insofar as technically feasible) or made inaccessible (as appropriate).
- 7.2 The obligation in paragraph 7.1 above is subject to the following exceptions:
- 7.2.1 Paragraph 7.1 above does not apply to solicitors' or counsel's notes subject to continued compliance with all other Confidentiality Terms.
- 7.2.2 Paragraph 7.1 above does not create an obligation to search for transitory or deeply stored soft copies of Confidential Information which may exist on the computer system of the Receiving Party and which cannot be recovered without special measures, provided that such Documents and/or information will be promptly deleted in the event of the restoration of such copies.
- 7.2.3 Paragraph 7.1 above does not apply to a Party's copies of pleadings, evidence, skeleton arguments, transcripts, applications, draft orders, correspondence referred to at trial or in a hearing or submitted in the Proceedings, or to legally privileged work product referring to Confidential Information, subject to continued compliance with the Confidentiality Terms in respect of the Confidential Information contained within such Documents.
- 7.2.4 Paragraph 7.1 above does not apply to a Party in respect of the Confidential Information it provided.
- 7.3 The production of copies of the Confidential Information shall be limited to those required by the Interim Confidentiality Ring Members to whom they are disclosed.

8. PROPOSED DEFENDANT'S TRANSACTIONAL DATA

- 8.1 Should the Proposed Defendant disclose transactional data, which is data retrieved from a database reflecting transactions made through Steam and other original data linked to that transaction data (the “Data”), the following additional conditions will apply:
- 8.1.1 prior to the disclosure of the Data, the Proposed Defendant will inform the Proposed Class Representative that the Data to be disclosed is subject to the conditions of this paragraph 8 and the Proposed Class Representative will confirm its agreement that this paragraph applies;
  - 8.1.2 the Data will only be downloaded to, and stored by a Party receiving Data (the “Data Recipient”), in a single secure location, protected by commercially reputable firewall software, that ensures that access is limited only to Interim Confidentiality Ring Members who will be performing data analysis in this case and have given a signed undertaking in the terms of part B of the schedule to this order and the necessary secretarial and other support personnel, as defined at paragraph 1.1.2(b), of those Interim Confidentiality Ring Members;
  - 8.1.3 the Data will be accessible (only with password and/or biometric authentication) by only Interim Confidentiality Ring Members who will be performing data analysis in this case and the necessary secretarial and other support personnel, as defined at paragraph 1.1.2(b), of those Interim Confidentiality Ring Members;
  - 8.1.4 the Data will also be accessible by the legal representatives of the Proposed Class Representative (only with password and/or biometric authentication) who have given a signed undertaking in the terms of part B of the schedule to this order;
  - 8.1.5 the Data will not be transferred by a Data Recipient to portable data storage or portable data transfer devices;
  - 8.1.6 within 30 days of the final disposition of the Proceedings, the Proposed Class Representative will ensure that any person or organization provided with the Data has destroyed (i) the Data; (ii) any copies of the Data; and (iii) any summaries or descriptions of the Data; and

8.1.7 the Proposed Class Representative will notify the Proposed Defendant within 45 days of the final disposition of proceedings that paragraph 8.1.6 above has been complied with.

8.2 Nothing in this paragraph 8 will prevent Interim Confidentiality Ring Members from using and discussing information derived from the Data in the Proceedings, provided that this information is treated as Confidential Information in accordance with the terms of this Order.

9. DISCLOSURE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

9.1 In the event of any disclosure of Confidential Information other than in a manner authorised by this Order, including any unintentional or inadvertent disclosure, solicitors for the improperly disclosing Party shall immediately notify the improper recipient(s) and the solicitors for the Party which provided the Confidential Information in the Proceedings, and the improperly disclosing Party shall use all reasonable endeavours to further prevent unauthorised disclosure including using all reasonable endeavours to retrieve all copies of the Confidential Information from the improper recipient(s) thereof and seeking to secure the agreement of such recipient(s) not to further disseminate the Confidential Information in any form.

9.2 Nothing in these Confidentiality Terms shall prevent or prohibit a Receiving Party from taking any action (including in particular disclosing Confidential Information to a person who is not a Confidentiality Ring Member and/or referring to such Documents or information in open Tribunal) which has been authorised in writing by the Party which provided the Confidential Information.

9.3 If at any time any Confidential Information is made the subject of a court or tribunal disclosure or discovery order (or similar) anywhere in the world, the person bound by or subject to the order shall immediately give written notice to the solicitors of the Party which produced the Confidential Information. If the Party which provided the Confidential Information in the Proceedings does not take steps to prevent the further disclosure of such Confidential Information within ten (10) working days of the date on which such written notice was given, the Party bound by or subject to the order which was made may produce such Confidential Information but shall take all reasonable measures to have the Confidential Information treated in accordance with the Confidentiality Terms. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph 9.3 only applies to a Party who is the recipient of Confidential Information provided in the Proceedings and does not apply to the Party which provides the Confidential Information in the Proceedings.

10. ENFORCEMENT OF THE ORDER, LIBERTY TO APPLY AND COSTS

- 10.1 The Confidentiality Terms are intended to apply unless or until superseded by a subsequent order of the Tribunal.
- 10.2 In the event of any anticipated or actual breach of this Order, any Party may seek to enforce the Confidentiality Terms.
- 10.3 This Order (including the schedule thereto) and any undertakings given pursuant to it are governed by and shall be construed in accordance with English law and each Party hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
- 10.4 Nothing in this Order or the schedules thereto shall prevent or prohibit any Interim Confidentiality Ring Member from acting in other proceedings.
- 10.5 The costs of compliance with and of drafting this Order shall be costs in the case in the Proceedings.
- 10.6 There shall be liberty to apply to vary the terms of this Order.
