ORDER

UPON the application of the Proposed Class Representative (“ACSO”) for a Collective Proceedings Order pursuant to section 47B of the Competition Act 1998 and Rule 75 of the Competition Appeal Tribunal Rules 2015 (the “Tribunal Rules”) dated 14 August 2025 (the “CPO Application”)

AND UPON the application of the Proposed Defendants (together, “Amazon”) dated 12 January 2026 to strike out ACSO’s claim as an abuse of process (the “SO Application”) pursuant to Rule 41(1), or, alternatively for an order requiring ACSO to amend its claim form before the claim is permitted to proceed to a certification hearing (the “Alternative Application”)

AND UPON the Tribunal having heard counsel for ACSO and Amazon at the first case management conference (“CMC1”) on 12 February 2026

AND UPON the Tribunal’s Order made on 12 February 2026 dismissing the SO Application and ordering that (a) Amazon shall pay ACSO’s costs of opposing the SO Application, to be summarily assessed if not agreed; and (b) ACSO shall pay Amazon’s costs of any observations made on ACSO's schedule of costs related to the SO Application, to be summarily assessed if not agreed

AND UPON ACSO filing a schedule of its costs related to the SO Application on 18 February 2026

AND UPON Amazon filing submissions on ACSO's schedule of costs related to the SO Application and a schedule of its own costs incurred in preparing these submissions on 27 February 2026

AND UPON the Tribunal's Judgment dated 24 March 2026 setting out its reasons for dismissing the SO Application and its judgment on the costs of and occasioned by the SO Application

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. ACSO's costs are summarily assessed at £75,062.
2. Amazon's costs are summarily assessed at £5,285.
3. Amazon shall pay ACSO the sum of £69,777 within 14 days of the date of this Order in respect of their costs associated with the SO Application.
