ORDER

UPON the application of Association of Consumer Support Organisations Ltd (“ACSO”) against the Proposed Defendants (“Amazon”) in these proceedings with case no. 1749/7/7/25 (the “ACSO Proceedings”) for a Collective Proceedings Order pursuant to section 47B of the Competition Act 1998 and Rule 75 of the Competition Appeal Tribunal Rules 2015 (the “CPO Application”)

AND UPON Amazon’s application for strike-out and / or reverse summary judgment in respect of ACSO’s claim under Article 101 TFEU and / or Chapter I of the Competition Act 1998, pursuant to Rules 41(1), 43, 74(1), and 79(4) of the Tribunal Rules dated 2 July 2026 (the “Strike-Out Application”)

AND UPON the Order of the Tribunal drawn on 6 July 2026 in Case No. 1595/7/7/23 Robert Hammond v Amazon.com, Inc & Others (the “Hammond Proceedings”) and Case No. 1644/7/7/24 Professor Andreas Stephan v Amazon.com, Inc & Others (the “Stephan Proceedings”) (the “Directions Order”)

AND UPON Amazon (or some of the Defendants, or some members of the same undertaking) having been party to the “Other Proceedings”, as defined in the Directions Order

AND UPON Amazon being ordered (i) to provide the class representatives in the Hammond Proceedings and the Stephan Proceedings with an explanation of documents within Amazon’s control which were produced by Amazon in the Other Proceedings as at 2 June 2026 and its proposals for the disclosure and provision of any relevant materials from such documents; and (ii) to take reasonable and proportionate steps to provide various confirmations by 4pm on 28 August 2026, pursuant to paragraphs 1 and 2 of the Directions Order (the “Other Proceedings Disclosure Explanation”)

AND UPON the Tribunal’s Ruling dated 13 October 2026 in the ACSO Proceedings (the “Ruling”)

AND UPON hearing counsel for ACSO and counsel for Amazon at a case management conference on 14-15 October 2026

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

A. OTHER PROCEEDINGS DISCLOSURE

1. Within five weeks of ACSO confirming its intention to pursue its CPO Application pursuant to paragraph 8 of the Ruling, Amazon shall provide ACSO with an updated version of the Other Proceedings Disclosure Explanation, which makes proposals for disclosure and inspection of any relevant documents provided in the Other Proceedings by reference to the issues pleaded (and conduct alleged) in the ACSO Proceedings.
2. ACSO shall, within three weeks of receipt of the updated Other Proceedings Disclosure Explanation referred to in paragraph 1:
 - (a) indicate whether it agrees to the proposals made in that explanation; and

- (b) make any further or alternative proposals, if so advised, for disclosure and inspection in the ACSO Proceedings of documents provided by Amazon in the Other Proceedings.
- 3. Amazon shall, within six weeks of ACSO's response under paragraph 2 above, disclose and provide inspection of documents produced in the Other Proceedings in accordance with such proposals as are agreed between the Parties pursuant to the process set out in paragraphs 1-2 above.
- 4. If and to the extent the Parties are unable to reach agreement, ACSO shall have liberty to apply.

B. PLEADINGS

- 5. ACSO may, if so advised, file and serve a Re-Amended Collective Proceedings Claim Form, within two weeks of the later of:
 - (a) The date on which ACSO confirms its intention to proceed with its CPO Application pursuant to paragraph 8 of the Ruling; and
 - (b) The date on which the Tribunal hands down the judgment containing its reasons for the decision set out in the Ruling and its determination of Amazon's Strike-out Application.
- 6. Within six weeks of the deadline for ACSO to file and serve a Re-Amended Collective Proceedings Claim Form pursuant to paragraph 5 above, Amazon shall file and serve its Defence to the ACSO claim.
- 7. Within six weeks of the service of Amazon's Defence, ACSO shall file and serve any Reply.

C. COSTS

- 8. The costs of the matters addressed by these directions shall be costs in the case.
