NCRQ LIMITED v INSTITUTION OF OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH

SCHEDULE to order dated 11 January 2016

1. The Defendant shall forthwith and for a period of three years from the date hereof grant accreditation at the level of graduate membership to the Claimant's Diploma in Applied Health and Safety. By 'accreditation' it is meant that the Defendant shall:
  - (i) Include the Claimant's Diploma in Applied Health and Safety within any official or public list of accredited qualifications which the Defendant maintains, including the list published on the Defendant's website, with a specific indication that the Claimant's said Diploma in Applied Health and Safety is accredited to the level of graduate membership of the Defendant;

and
  - (ii) Admit any applicant who can prove that he or she holds the Claimant's Diploma in Applied Health and Safety to the status of graduate member of the Defendant, upon application by such applicant and the payment of any appropriate fee, on the same basis as would apply to an applicant holding any other qualification entitling him or her to apply for graduate membership of the Defendant.
2. The said accreditation shall be granted upon and be subject to the same terms as apply to all course providers who are accredited by the Defendant, as set out in the Defendant's published guidance (currently its booklet entitled "Accreditation of Qualifications: Graduate Membership (leading to Chartership)").
3. There shall be no order as to costs.
4. The terms set out above are agreed by way of full and final settlement of these proceedings (including the Claimant's Application for Injunctive Relief dated 16 December 2015).
