

COMPETITION APPEAL TRIBUNAL

IN THE COMPETITION APPEAL TRIBUNAL

Case No. 1018/3/3/03

BETWEEN:

BRITISH TELECOMMUNICATIONS PLC

Appellant

-v.-

DIRECTOR GENERAL OF TELECOMMUNICATIONS

Respondent supported by

VODAFONE LIMITED

and

O2 (UK) LIMITED

Interveners

---

ORDER OF THE PRESIDENT

---

UPON hearing legal representatives for the parties at a case management conference

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. Vodafone Limited and O2 (UK) Limited be granted permission to intervene.
2. The appellant file by 5pm on 19 September 2003 an agreed undertaking and/or a progress report on the question of it's request for interim relief.
3. The interveners file and serve their statements of intervention by 5 pm on 17 October 2003.
4. Any reply by the appellant be filed and served by 5 pm on 3 November 2003.

5. The day of 10 November 2003 be set aside for the purposes of a site visit and/or explanations of technical matters arising in the appeal (the scope and practical arrangements of the said visit to be settled by liaison between the parties and the Registrar).
6. The appellant and respondent file and serve their skeleton arguments by 5pm on 24 November 2003.
7. If so advised, the interveners file and serve their skeleton arguments by 5pm on 26 November 2003.
8. The oral hearing of the appeal be fixed for 3 and 4 December 2003 at a time and location to be notified to the parties at a later date.
9. Costs reserved.
10. Liberty to apply.

Sir Christopher Bellamy
President of the Competition Appeal Tribunal

Made 12 September 2003
Drawn 19 September 2003