CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE
(Including a Tribute to Richard Fowler QC)

1 THE PRESIDENT: Mr. Green, just before we start and before we officially go into camera, I would
2 just like to say that this is the first time that I have sat in a case in which Mr. Richard Fowler
3 QC had been instructed.

4 Richard was someone whom I had known extremely well for 40 years. He was 5 universally liked, admired and respected, not least by those on the Tribunal who had had the
6 pleasure of listening to his submissions. I would therefore like to take this opportunity to place
7 on record the Tribunal's deep appreciation of his many qualities, particularly his skill, courtesy
8 and integrity as an advocate, and to offer the Tribunal's condolences to his family, friends, and
9 to all those who knew him; and in particular our condolences to Ofcom who have lost the 10 services of a highly valued and distinguished leading counsel.

11 It is therefore appropriate that we now proceed with the case, as I am sure Richard
12 would have wished us to do, and for that we need to go into camera for the purposes of this 13 hearing. I just need to make sure that we are indeed in camera and there is nobody here who is 14 not authorised to be here.

15 MR. GREEN: Perhaps I could just say from the Bar side, it may be appropriate just to echo your 16 sentiments from the Bar, solicitors and the clients here, his loss is a profound shock to 17 everybody and we will miss him.

18 THE PRESIDENT: Thank you, Mr. Green.

19 MR. BARLING: We very much associate ourselves with those sentiments as well.

20 MR. MORRIS: Likewise.

21 THE PRESIDENT: Thank you.
